Welcome to the website of Impala Internet. Over the next couple of months we will be developing this site to include all the internet related services we can offer, a variety of resources, tools & useful weblinks to help anyone get a presence on the world wide web, whether it be a business, community group or just for fun.

We are a division of The Bamboo Group, a Manchester based Consultancy & Marketing Services business. As such our focus is on assisting businesses develop visibility, new clients & improve sales & communication, that said the business is very much involved with supportive of local communities so we also have experience in the Third Sector ie not for profit organisations & community groups so we are also more than happy to help, even if you haven't a product or service to sell, if fact, we'll even help you get on the web for free!

We will also be launching a free email newsletter, full of helpful advice & handy hints so if you'd like to receive a copy simply drop us an email with newsletter subscribe in the subject line and we will add you to the list, of course, you can unsubscribe at any time and we promise never to sell or pass your details to anyone outside the company.
